Lesson 14 Vocabulary List

bold: adj. Showing little or no fear; ready to take risks. (Example: Sarita's bold plan was to dress as a boy to try out for the male lead in the play.)

cunning: adj. Clever at tricking others; sly. (Example: No matter what we did, the raccoon found cunning ways to enter the garden for the corn.)

n. Cleverness at tricking or fooling others. (Example: Gretel's cunning saved her and Hansel from being propped in the oven by the old witch.)

deed: n. 1. Something done; an act. (Example: Charlotte felt she had certainly done her good deed for the day when all the dishes were washed, dried, and put away.)

2. A paper that shows who owns a certain building or piece of land. (Example: The deed for the farm shows that the Saroto family has owned this land for at least one hundred years.)

doze: v. To sleep lightly; to nap. (Example: Sabrina tiptoed quickly through the room so that she did not arouse Grandma, who was dozing in her chair.)

jagged: adj. Having sharp points and edges; rough. (Example: Be careful when you pick up the broken glass because the pieces are jagged.)

positive: adj. 1. Certain; sure. (Example: When you are positive you have finished the whole exercise, please give it to me.)

2. Trying to make things better; useful. (Example: Our teacher gave us some positive comments after our group finished the skit we were practicing for parents' night.) respect: v. To look up to; to have a high opinion of. (Example: My friend respected the way I defended my views, even though she disagreed with them.)

n. A good opinion of the worth or value of something. (Example: Uncle Harry says he does not have respect for people who lie.) responsible: adj. 1. Being the cause of something. (Example: Luke quickly explained to his parents that his dog, not he, was responsible for breaking the vase.)

2. Trustworthy; reliable. (Example: My aunt and uncle are looking for a responsible teenager to care for my cousins after school.) smuggle: v. To carry in or bring out in a secret way. (Example: The thieves smuggled the painting away from the museum in an ice cream truck.) version: n. A story or account of something that may differ from other accounts of the same event. (Example: Trying to find out how the accident happened was not easy because the three people who saw it each gave a different version of what took place.)
