Vocabulary Review Week- Lists 1-5 intelligent: adj. Able to learn, think, and understand quickly and easily. (Example: In our science book, we are reading stories that show how intelligent dolphins are.)

average: n. 1. The usual amount or kind of something. (Example: Twenty students in a class is the average for our school.)

2. The result of adding a set of numbers and then dividing the total by the number in the set. (Example: The average of 2, 3, and 7 is 4.)

adj. Not special or unusual; ordinary. (Example: Five feet tall is an average height for a person.)

resident: n. A person who lives in a certain place. (Example: May we go to this beach to swim, or is it for the residents of the town only?)

suitable: adj. Fit or right for some purposes or event. (Example: Checkers and other games with small parts are not suitable for very young children.)

amaze: v. To surprise or cause wonder. (Example: Freddy amazed his parents by tidying his room without being told.)

amazing: adj. Causing wonder or surprise. (Example: It is amazing but true that time would slow down aboard a space ship traveling at very high speed.)

process: n. A number of steps that one takes in order to do or make something. (Example: In early spring, Uncle Ted began the process of making maple syrup by collecting sap from the trees.)

fatal: adj. Causing death. (Example: Eating this pretty white mushroom can be fatal.)

nectar: n. A sweet liquid produced by many flowering plants. It is used by bees to make honey. (Example: the bees hummed among the flowers as they gathered nectar.)

flutter: v. To wave or flap quickly but not regularly. (Example: Sitting by the clubhouse, Olivia watched her flag flutter about them.)

current: n. A flow of air, water, or electricity. (Example: The lifeguard told us not to swim to the middle of the river, because the current there was very strong.)
adj. Of the present time. (Example: Carrie's current address is 7 Elm Street.)

frail: adj. Weak, not very strong. (Example: Danny looked frail when I visited him in the hospital.)

moisture: n. A small amount of water or other liquid, often in the form of small drops. (Example: Carla sat on the bench and wiped the moisture from her face with a towel.)

moist: adj. Damp or slightly wet. (Example: Grass snakes usually live in moist places like the banks of rivers.)
