

Spelling Review Week #2- Lessons 1-5

1. volunteers
2. novel
3. features
4. coast
5. attract
6. recreation
7. marine
8. vessels
9. launch
10. examine

11. tackle
12. events
13. before
14. other
15. speak
16. grade
17. save
18. head
19. send
20. have

CHALLENGE WORDS:

1. October
2. November

Vocabulary Review Week- Lessons 1-5

volunteer: n. A person who offers to do a job, usually without pay. (Example: Mark, who is a volunteer in our class, helps Mrs. Stevens with the art projects.)

v. To choose to do something or to give help. (Example: Cathy volunteered to help in the library on Thursday mornings.) novel: n. A long story about people and events that are imagined by the author. (Example: Have you read any novels by Laura Ingalls Wilder?)

adj. New and different. (Example: In 1990, the Internet was a novel way to find information.) feature: n. 1. An important or special part of something. (Example: An unusual feature of this room is a secret stairway hidden behind this wall.)

2. Any part of the face. (Example: One pleasing feature of Chad's is his warm smile.)

coast: n. The land beside the sea. (Example: After we reached the coast, we walked a long way on the beach.)

v. To move without power or effort. (Example: Lucy quickly pedaled her bike to the top of the hill and then coasted down the other side.) attract: v. To bring or draw closer. (Example: The large red flowers attracted all kinds of birds.) attractive: adj. Pleasing to the eye or mind. (Example: The bakery window, filled with pies, cakes, and cookies was so attractive that I wanted to go in.)

attraction: n. Something that draws attention (Example: One attraction Karen attends every September is the state fair.)

recreation: n. Anything a person does to relax or have fun; play. (Example: Sally's favorite recreation is ice-skating.)

marine: adj. Having to do with the ocean or with ships and boats. (Example: The largest marine animal is the blue whale.)

vessel: n. 1. A ship or large boat. (Example: All of the passengers aboard the vessel hoped to see a whale or dolphin during the trip.)

2. Anything hollow that can be used to hold liquids. (Example: A clay vessel filled with lemonade rested on the picnic table in the backyard.)

launch: n. An open motorboat that is used for short distance. (Example: The launch carried our class across the river for a picnic.)

v. 1. To put a boat or vessel in the water. (Example: Bob launched the canoe onto the pond and started to paddle to the other side.)

2. To get started or to make a move. (Example: Mr. Miller launched the clean-up day by giving everyone a pair of work gloves.)

examine: v. To look at closely. (Example: When John and Sarah examined the desk, they discovered that the letter they were looking for was gone.)

tackle: v. 1. To grab or get in the way of a player in a game in order to stop the player or take the ball away. (Example: Just as I caught the ball, Ian tackled me.)

2. To do or try to do something. (Example: Dad told my brother and me that after cleaning our rooms, we could tackle the basement.)

n. The tools needed for some activity or sport. (Example: Opening the box of fishing tackle, we found hooks, lines, weights, and floats.)

event: n. Something that happens, especially something important. (Example: The big event of the week for Sharon was going to see Swan Lake with her mom.)