

Spelling Review Week #4- Lessons 1-10

- | | |
|----------------|-------------|
| 1. act | 11. crumple |
| 2. solution | 12. signal |
| 3. confess | 13. float |
| 4. memorize | 14. hold |
| 5. rig | 15. patch |
| 6. rod | 16. sight |
| 7. transparent | 17. mind |
| 8. interval | 18. count |
| 9. gust | 19. talk |
| 10. pause | 20. quick |

CHALLENGE WORDS:

1. Phoenix
2. Arizona

Vocabulary Review Week- Lessons 1-10

act: n. 1. Something that is done. (Example: Giving clothes and food to the family who lost everything in the house fire was a generous act.)

2. A show that is put on. (Example: One act in the spring festival will be a folk dance.)

3. One of the main parts of a play. (Example: During the interval between acts one and two, we can walk outside for some fresh air.)

v. 1. To do something (Example: Ellie acted at once when I asked her to help me move the sofa.

2. To play a part in a play, a movie, or on television. (Example: In The Wizard of Oz, Bert Lahr acted the part of the cowardly lion.)

solution: n. 1. The answer to a problem or puzzle. (Example: After filling in all but a few of the blanks in the crossword puzzle, Rico turned to the back of the newspaper for the solution.)

2. A mixture formed when a liquid and some other stuff are mixed together. (Example: Brine, which is a solution of salt and water, keeps pickles crisp and fresh.)

confess: v. To say or admit that one has done something wrong. (Example: When my older sister accused me of getting spots on her best sweater, I confessed that I had, but by accident.)

memorize: v. To fix in one's memory exactly; to learn by heart. (Example: It amazes me how quickly Jerrard can memorize the words of a song he has heard.) rig: v. 1. To make or do something by using whatever is nearby. (Example: Sawyer and I wanted a shady place to sit in the yard, so we rigged up a tent using two brooms and an old blanket.)

2. To set up sails on a boat. (Example: Mom rigged the sails while we loaded the picnic basket, towels, and life jackets on the boat.)

n. A machine or construction that is used for a special purpose. (Example: Oil rigs pump oil from 1,000 feet deep.) rod: n. A thin, straight piece of wood, metal, or other material. (Example: The shower curtain hung from a metal rod.) transparent: adj. Allowing light to pass through freely so that one can see clearly. (Example: Several kinds of fish swam past us in the transparent waters of the lake.) interval: n. 1. a period of time between events. (Example: the announcer explained that there would be a ten-minute interval before the next race began.)

2. A space between two things. (Example: The row of old oak trees, boarding the road, had been planted at intervals of forty feet.) gust: n. A sudden increase in the strength of the wind. (Example: As the hurricane got closer, the gusts of wind shook the house.) pause: v. To stop for a short time before going on. (Example: Ms. Bonnie paused to see if we had questions and then finished giving us the directions for the game.)

n. A short break or rest from what has been going on. (Example: After a short pause to catch her breath, Alexis set off for the top of the hill.) crumple: v. To crush together; to bend or press into creases or wrinkles. (Example: Sue's shirt was crumpled after she stuffed it into the bottom of her bag.) signal: n. An object, action, or sound that gives a message or a warning. (Example: Seeing the flashing red signal, John told his brother they had to wait to cross the street.)

v. To do something that gives a message or warning. (Example: Jeff signaled the start of the race by waving a flag.)